

*Parent Orientation Session at Army Public School Jammu Cantt VI to IX ****

From April 9 to April 18, 2024, Army Public School Jammu Cantt conducted a Parent Orientation Session for parents of students in classes VI to IX. The session aimed to provide parents with key insights into their children's education. School counsellor Ms. Priyanka Andotra led the session, starting with a presentation on the school's mission and vision, highlighting the goal of creating a supportive learning environment and cultivating global citizens.

Throughout the session, various staff members delivered presentations on critical topics. These included the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020, examination schedules, the National Curriculum Framework (NCF) for secondary stages, effective parenting, legal issues such as the POSCO Act and cybercrime, and the School Quality Assessment and Accreditation (SQAA) domains.

Ms. Manmeet Kour, Vice Principal, explained the NEP 2020, discussing how it impacts the school's curriculum and teaching methods. Ms. Pooja Sharma, Examination In charge(VI-VIII), provided a detailed overview of the tentative examination schedule for the year, addressing important exam-related concerns and board exam criteria.

Ms. Rajni Chouhan and Ms. Reena Sharma, Coordinators, elaborated on the NCF for middle and secondary stages, showing its alignment with the school's curriculum.

Ms. Priyanka Andotra also discussed effective parenting practices and provided an overview of legal aspects like the POSCO Act and cybercrime. She stressed the important role parents play in the SQAA domains and their influence on their child's overall development.

Principal Ms. Puneet Kour emphasized the need for collaborative efforts between parents and teachers in shaping a child's education. She highlighted the crucial roles both play in this process.

The session concluded with a Q&A segment, promoting collaboration between parents and the school management. This cooperative approach is vital for achieving the goal of nurturing students to become valuable members of society.

Overall, the Parent Orientation Session offered parents essential insights into their children's education and fostered a partnership between the school and parents. Such initiatives are crucial for ensuring the holistic development of students and preparing them for future challenges.
