

WARM RECEPTION FOR BALVATIKA STUDENTS AT ARMY PUBLIC SCHOOL JAMMU CANTT

In a gesture of warmth and inclusiveness, Army Public School Jammu Cantt warmly greeted the Balvatika students on the 18th of April 2024, heralding the commencement of an exciting educational odyssey for the young scholars.

The school buzzed with excitement and enthusiasm as the Balvatika students stepped onto the premises, receiving traditional tilak marks and thoughtful gift pack folders, emblematic of the school's dedication to their holistic development and welfare.

The Vice Principal, Ms. Manmeet Kour and the Headmistress, Ms. Anupama Bahadure, welcomed the children with open arms, extending heartfelt greetings and ushering them into the nurturing embrace of the school environment. Their presence and reassuring words filled the children with a sense of comfort and belonging, facilitating a seamless transition into their new educational milieu.

The radiant smiles on the faces of the children spoke volumes about their joy and elation at being embraced by their new school community. Their inquisitiveness and eagerness to explore their surroundings mirrored the spirit of adventure and possibility that awaited them on their educational voyage.
