

AWARENESS SESSION ON NDLI AND NDLI CLUB

Army Public School Jammu Cantt organized “An awareness session on NDLI & NDLI Club” on 6 October 2023 for all the students and the staff. National Digital Library of India (NDLI) is an initiative of MHRD, Govt. of India, and developed by IIT Kharagpur. It is a digital repository that provides free access to learning materials from primary to post-graduate levels across various subject domains to benefit all kind of life-long learners. The primary objective of the session was to instil a passion for reading the different resources available in the library and NDLI among the staff and the students. It is to aware the users about the resources ,the content available at NDLI in various forms ,its usefulness , functions and activities of NDLI Club. The session was coordinated by librarian Ms Jyoti Sharma and assistant librarian Ms Akriti Sharma.

Ms. Ananya Guha was the Resource Person of this awareness session. She executed the session with a vision and mission of NDLI and its history. Ms. Ananya Guha explained in detail about the type of content available at NDLI and types of activities conducted by NDLI Club globally. She briefed about the benefits to all students and staff. She demonstrated the NDLI website and provided detailed information about the organization of content on the website. She showcased the interface availability in various languages, types of formats, types of access availability, category wise availability of content, educational level wise availability through browsing NDLI website. She also briefed about the registration process on the portal. It was an interactive session where the queries have been answered amicably.

