

ARMY PUBLIC SCHOOL JAMMU CANTT CELEBRATES AWES DAY

The 40th AWES Day was celebrated on April 29, 2023 at Army Public School Jammu Cantt with all pomp and glory. A Special Assembly was conducted by the students of Shaurya House to mark the significance of the day. The assembly commenced with a speech by Prabhnoor Singh of class X, wherein he threw light on the foundation, history and role of AWES. This was followed by a melodious group song by the students of classes VIII to X that set the patriotic fervor to the next level. Next in line was a well executed skit showcasing the importance of discipline, honesty, integrity, cultural brilliance and class education which forms the essence of AWES. Then was a well synchronized group dance by the students of classes VI to X that left all awe struck. The school reverberated with the AWES song as the students sang in perfect sync.

The Vice Principal, Ms Manmeet Kour, in her address, enlightened the students about the relevance and significance of AWES DAY. She also inspired the students to carry forward the legacy of AWES and strive for excellence through their deeds and hardwork.
