

WARM FAREWELL ACCORDED TO MR SUJIWAN KUMAR

Army Public School Jammu Cantt recently bid adieu to one of its esteemed faculty members, Mr. Sujiwan Kumar, who served as the Biology Lab Assistant. With an impressive tenure spanning 30 years since August 1994, Mr. Sujeevan Kumar attained superannuation on 30th March 2024, marking the end of an era characterized by unwavering dedication and service. The occasion was marked by sentiments encapsulating the essence of transition, with the motto "Retirement means it's time for new adventure".

The departure of Mr. Sujeevan was met with heartfelt appreciation and warm wishes from the school's administration. The Principal, Ms. Puneet Kaur, welcomed him with a floral bouquet, expressing gratitude for his relentless contributions to the institution. The Principal Ms. Puneet Kaur commended Mr. Sujeevan for his remarkable success and invaluable service, while the Vice Principal, Ms. Manmeet Kour, extended sincere wishes for a happy, healthy, and prosperous retirement journey ahead.

A poignant farewell function was meticulously organized to honour Mr. Sujeevan Kumar's dedication and legacy. Mr. Chaman, reflecting on his cherished association with Mr. Sujeevan, delivered a poetic tribute that resonated deeply with the audience. Ms. Surbhi embellished the event with heartfelt speeches, setting the tone for an afternoon filled with nostalgia and appreciation.

The atmosphere was further enriched by a soul-stirring song session by Ms. Anupuma Bhadure and Mrs Renu Badyal , infusing the gathering with a sense of warmth and camaraderie. The highlight of the occasion was a captivating presentation chronicling Mr. Sujeevan's remarkable journey within the institution, evoking emotions of admiration and gratitude. Tokens of love and appreciation, including paintings, mementos, and gifts, were tendered as symbols of gratitude for his invaluable contributions.

As the event drew to a close, Mr. Sujeevan took center stage to express heartfelt sentiments, reminiscing about his tenure at the school and extending heartfelt thanks to colleagues and well-wishers for their unwavering support and camaraderie. The celebration concluded on an emotional note, with sincere wishes for Mr. Sujeevan's future endeavours and a commitment to preserving his legacy within the institution.

In culmination, a refreshing party was organized to celebrate Mr. Sujeevan's dedication and hard work, reaffirming the bonds of friendship and camaraderie that define the Army Public School Jammu Cantt community.
