

HUMAN RIGHTS DAY CELEBRATION

APS Jammu Cantt observed a special assembly on 9th Dec 2023 to commemorate the 75th anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. The day began with a mesmerizing morning prayer followed by a thought verbalized by Snehal, a student of class IX. The students Mahaveer house presented a dance performance highlighting the issue of lack of awareness among the illiterate and poor about their basic rights and how they are repressed by the powerful for their selfish motives. Harman Bhagat, a student of class VIII made it loud and clear through a poem that to deny people their human rights is to challenge humanity. The pedagogue Mrs. Monika (PGT English) in her speech proclaimed that the human rights are rights inherent to all human beings, regardless of race, sex, nationality, ethnicity, language, religion, or any other status. Ms. Puneet Kaur, Principal APS Jammu Cantt promulgated that the Universal Declaration of Human Rights by the United Nations General Assembly on December 10, 1948 is a milestone document that outlines the basic principles of human rights, including the right to life, liberty and security of person. The informative assembly set the tone for everyone.
