

RAM NAVMI CELEBRATION

AT

ARMY PUBLIC SCHOOL JAMMU CANTT

Army Public School, Jammu Cantt, resonated with fervor and devotion as it celebrated Ram Navmi on April 16, 2024. The occasion, dedicated to Lord Rama, was marked by a series of captivating performances and heartfelt expressions of reverence.

The event commenced with Harshdeep Singh's expert coordination, ensuring the smooth flow of activities throughout the celebration. The school choir set the tone with soul-stirring prayer invoking blessings of God, followed by attendees taking a solemn pledge to embody the values and teachings of the revered deity.

Mr. Vikas Sharma, TGT Sanskrit, delivered an insightful speech, shedding light on the significance of Ram Navmi and its enduring relevance in contemporary society. Nikunj Jamwal's poignant poem further deepened the spiritual ambiance, captivating the audience with its heartfelt expressions of devotion and righteousness.

A highlight of the celebration was the Tableau presented by Primary students enchanting rendition of "Ram Siya Ram Siya Ram Jai Jai Ram", Their innocence and purity added a poignant touch to the proceedings. The house choir then took the stage with a spirited performance of "Bajao Dhol Swagat Mein, Mere Ghar Ram Aaye Hai," infusing the atmosphere with joy and enthusiasm.

The cultural extravaganza continued with a mesmerizing dance performance choreographed by Ms Seema Bhatti and Mr. Akshay Kumar (PRT Dance). Their rendition of Ramashtakam in dance form showcased both grace and devotion, leaving a lasting impression on the audience.

The celebration culminated with a stirring speech by the Principal Ms Puneet Kaur, emphasizing the importance of honoring and emulating the ideals of Lord Rama in all aspects of life. Through these collective efforts, the Ram Navmi celebration at Army Public School, Jammu Cantt, not only fostered religious fervor but also instilled values of righteousness, devotion, and unity among its students and staff.
