

ARMY PUBLIC SCHOOL JAMMU CANTT

CELEBRATED RAKSHABANDHAN

To strengthen the virtuous bond of love between brother and sister which is one of the noblest and the deepest of all human emotions, Army Public School, Jammu Cantt celebrated the auspicious day of Rakshabandhan on 30th August, 2023. The pious day of Rakshabandhan is marked by the sisters tying an amulet called the Rakhi around the wrist of their brothers.

The students of Shaurya house presented the special assembly on this prolific occasion of Rakshabandhan wherein the complete school witnessed the celebration with great zeal and endeavour. The event commenced with the morning assembly followed by the heart touching speech of Ms Gurseerat of class V blemishing the importance of the day. The eye catching and scintillating dance performances were given by the students of classes I to V and VI and VIII. A skit was enacted by the students lime lighting the commemoration of this day. The brilliant show managed to arouse the sense of respect, love and brotherhood among all. Later the little champ of our school, Ms Kriste Sahani of class V recited the beautiful poem marking the importance of this day. After that the mellifluous song 'Rakhi Ki Dor' was sung by the choir of classes VI to VIII. The enthralling performance stimulated the auspicious bond of love.

Furthermore the event concluded with the wise words of Ms Puneet Kaur, Principal APS Jammu Cantt addressing all the students, the significance of Rakshbandhan. She also felicitated Master Japneet Singh, who pipped 1st position in Science and General knowledge Olympiad for his achievement and congratulated all the participants for their heart touching performances.

The celebration of Rakshabandhan ended with joy, smiles and bond of brotherhood when the girls of primary classes tied Rakhis around the wrist of Army Jawans of 15 guards and in return they thanked them by giving them gifts making this day a memorable one.
