

NATIONAL GIRL CHILD DAY CELEBRATED IN APS JAMMU CANTT

“We must save and educate girl child to make our future happy and bright.”

National Girl Child Day was celebrated in APS Jammu Cantt on Wednesday, 24th January 2024 as proposed by the Ministry of Women and Child Development and the Government of India in 2008. The purpose of the celebration is to spread awareness about the need and importance of respecting, educating and giving equal rights and opportunities to girls.

Keeping in mind the objective of apprising the young students with the significance of equal rights for girl child, the day was celebrated with great excitement in the school premises. A special assembly was organised by Paramvir House wherein children expressed their views on the values of celebrating and empowering the girl child. Various activities like poster making, slogan writing, painting, quiz and speeches were conducted to mark the day. Beautiful posters were designed and created by the children with thought provoking messages and slogans on the theme.

The Principal of the school, MsPuneet Kour, talked about the significance of the day and emphasized upon giving the little angels equal opportunities to perform and participate as they are the store house of abundant talent.

