

Army Public School Jammu Cantt celebrated Constitution Day

To mark a year-long celebration of 75 Years of the Constitution under the campaign “Hamara Samvidhan, Hamara Swabhiman”. APS Jammu Cantt set forth the celebration by initiating a monthly series of events as this day commemorates the historic moment when the Constituent Assembly of India adopted the Constitution on November 26, 1949, and it is an important occasion for promoting awareness about the fundamental principles of democracy, equality, and justice.

The day began with a special assembly put forth by Paramvir House with a warm welcome from the host, Master Vivaan Mahajan of class IV, who emphasized the significance of Constitution Day and highlighted the role of Dr. B.R. Ambedkar and his vision for a democratic and just India. The assembly further proceeded with a novel word and an enriching thought by Rid Gosh and Swara, respectively. Afterward, Aishwindeep Kour, a student of class IV recited a heartfelt poem celebrating the Constitution and ensuring a fair and just society. In addition, a lively skit was performed by the students of Paramveer House, which depicted the historical journey in the making of the Constitution of India. The skit featured key figures such as Dr. B.R. Ambedkar and highlighted the hard work and dedication of the framers in ensuring justice and equality for all citizens. The children portrayed the challenges and the collaborative spirit that led to the creation of the Constitution. Later on, Ms Ravinder Kour, a member of Paramveer House gave an eloquent speech and encouraged students to learn more about their rights and duties as citizens of India and to respect the values upheld by the Constitution.

The assembly concluded with a speech by the Principal Ms Puneet Kour, emphasizing the importance of understanding the Constitution, noting how it serves as the foundation of India’s democratic system. The principal concluded by reminding everyone that the Constitution is a living document that continues to shape India’s future. The principal congratulated the housemaster for her efforts and praised the students for their active participation and urged them to continue learning about their rights and responsibilities as citizens of India.

The celebration also included mass reading of the Preamble, emphasizing the core values and ideals enshrined in the Constitution. Students actively participated in the event, demonstrating their understanding and appreciation for the fundamental rights and duties of Indian citizens. Additionally, an activity of writing the Preamble in the class was also conducted.

Conclusion:

The Constitution Day celebrations were highly successful and engaging. Students gained a deeper understanding of the Indian Constitution and its significance in promoting justice, equality, and democracy. The assembly was an excellent opportunity for students to reflect on the values of the Constitution and understand their role in shaping the future of the nation.
