

Eid -e- Milad Celebration at APSJC

On the occasion of Eid -e-Milad, Paramvir House organized a special assembly in alignment with the United Nations Sustainable Development Goal of "Quality Education." The event was a heartfelt and educational celebration, emphasizing cultural diversity, inclusion, and the importance of moral values.

The program began with an ecstatic dance performance by the primary students followed by a group song by the students of middle wing, which added a colourful and melodious start to the event. The song highlighted the message of peace, unity, and compassion that is central to the teachings of the Prophet Muhammad, making the assembly both spiritually uplifting and educational.

Following the musical performance, Shreya of class IX delivered an insightful speech about the significance of Eid -e- Milad, sharing key lessons from the life of the Prophet and encouraging the students to embody values of kindness and tolerance. Her words inspired everyone to embrace these virtues in their daily lives.

Ms Harjeet Kour (TGT) and Divya Verma (PRT), took the stage next to share their perspective on the importance of promoting values-based education. They spoke passionately about the role of teachers and the educational system in fostering an environment of respect, mutual understanding, and moral development among students.

The event concluded with an inspiring address by the Principal Ms Puneet Kaur, who emphasized the importance of cultural celebrations in schools as a means of promoting inclusivity and understanding. She appreciated the efforts of the organizing team and encouraged the students to continue learning from such events, linking it to the broader goal of ensuring quality education for all, as outlined in the UN's Sustainable Development Goals.

