

APS JAMMU CANTT CELEBRATES VIGILANCE AWARENESS WEEK

Army Public School Jammu Cantt observed Vigilance Awareness Week 28 Oct to 03 Nov 2024, themed "Culture of Integrity for Nation's Prosperity," with activities aimed at instilling the values of integrity and transparency in students.

In this week-long activities' students, teachers, and staff participated in the Integrity Pledge in the morning assembly, affirming their commitment to upholding honesty and ethical values. Additionally, the students were motivated to take e-pledge on the Central Vigilance Commission (CVC) website, reinforcing the importance of moral values and promoting probity, integrity, and honesty.

Various activities, including slogan writing, discussions, and debates, centered around ethics, good governance, and the importance of a corruption-free society were held. Teachers conducted brief sensitization sessions to educate students on the ill effects of corruption and the significance of moral values.

Vigilance Week was a resounding success with students engaging in meaningful activities that not only helped raise awareness but also fostered a sense of responsibility.
