

Army Public School Jammu Cantt

Celebration of Vijay Diwas

On 16 December, 2024, Army Public School Jammu Cantt conducted a special assembly on Vijay Diwas, a day of immense pride and gratitude for our nation. Vijay Diwas, observed on December 16, marks the historic victory of India in the 1971 war, which led to the liberation of Bangladesh.

The day began with a special assembly put forth by Shaurya House with a warm welcome from the host, Master Samarjeet of class XI, who emphasized the significance of the valour, courage, and supreme sacrifices of our soldiers who fought selflessly for our country. The assembly further proceeded with a novel word and an enriching thought by Namah and Gauri of class XI. Through graceful movements and emotive expressions, Arshita, a student of class IX presented a dance performance on a patriotic song "Teri Mitti". Afterwards, a patriotic song was sung by the school choir, which filled everyone's hearts with pride and gratitude. The highlight of the program was a game called "Who Said that?" set forth by Abhinandan and Yash of class XI and VII respectively in which the audience had to guess the name of the patriotic slogans from famous Veer Gatha's and epics.

Later on, Ms Sheela Sharma, a member of Shaurya House gave an eloquent speech and highlighted the sacrifices made by our soldiers for the peace and freedom we enjoy today.

The assembly concluded with a speech by the Principal Ms Puneet Kour, emphasizing that Vijay Diwas is not just about celebrating victory; it is a reminder of the strength we derive from unity and the importance of standing together as one nation, especially during times of adversity.
