

ARMY PUBLIC SCHOOL JAMMU CANTT CELEBRATED WORLD BOOK DAY

BOOK DRIVE

Army Public School Jammu Cantt commemorated World Book Day with fervor and enthusiasm on April 23, 2024. The school's VII B class orchestrated a special morning assembly, serving as a beacon for literary celebration. Tanishq Singh, a student, personified the essence of books through a poignant poem, captivating the audience with the magic of literature.

A thought-provoking skit themed "If you want to meet a person, go to the library," emphasizing the profound connections forged through books and the treasures found within library walls. Ms. Taruneet Kour, a dedicated TGT English, delivered an insightful talk elucidating the essence of reading. She highlighted that reading demands not only attention and concentration but also fosters empathy and understanding, echoing the sentiment that books are indeed windows to the world.

The assembly resonated with the timeless wisdom of the Chinese bamboo story, illustrating the virtues of patience and perseverance in the pursuit of knowledge. Moreover, the school organized a commendable book donation drive, underscoring the spirit of generosity and inclusivity. The students as well as teachers eagerly participated in the book donation drive, recognizing the invaluable privilege of literacy. With hearts filled with empathy and a desire to make a difference, they generously contributed to the cause, understanding the transformative power of books in shaping lives.

In the aftermath of this inspiring event, the true impact of the initiative will be felt in the lives of the children who will now have access to the transformative power of literature. Each donated book represents not just a story but a beacon of hope, offering solace, knowledge, and inspiration to those who need it most.
